

IFRS convergence is coming and coming fast. Get on the right track now.

CCH Canadian's iGAAP: IFRS for Canada with Standards (Item 157J) is an indispensable online subscription that contains the full and latest version of the Standards, and all related IASB materials continuously updated as new documents are released. Annotations are incorporated throughout, highlighting proposed and prospective amendments, with detailed information on pending changes and effective dates. Annotations also provide history notes of recent changes and other key information to specific provisions.

Your subscription also includes access to iGAAP: IFRS for Canada Commentary (Item 156J). This material is extensively cross-linked with the IFRSs to create a fast and potent research solution. Written for Canadians by Deloitte Canada practitioners, this online resource draws upon the firm's global experience in IFRS. The complexities of the transition and implementation of IFRS is illustrated throughout with explanations, interpretive discussions and examples; and includes three unique features:

- Sections begin with a First Time Adopters guide.
- All sections have a Brief Summary of Major Differences between Canadian GAAP and IFRS.
- All sections conclude with details on the Implications for Canadian Preparers.
